“Certificate course in Personality Development”

---

Introduction

Dada Ramchand Bakhru Sindhu Mahavidyalaya, Department of languages conducts a week long, Personality development training programme since session 2015-16 for the enhancement of the students personality . This programme has a significant value as the institution lies in the backward reigons of north Nagpur. Many students take admissions from this socially and economically backward and starts of society. Almost 80-100 students participate in this course every year. The eminent personality development trainers of the city are invited to deliver their lecture . Many practical and communicative sessions are conducted. The students as well as faculties who attend these sessions are immensely benifitted. Certificates are given to all the participants .

Objectives :

- To help students enhance their personality.
- To provide platform to the socially backward students to express themselves.
- To cater to the needs of poor students by taking very low fees as they can not attend such costly courses outside.
- To raise them socially and upgrade their standard of living.
- To develop confidence spirit in them.

Capacity of students :

80 – 100 students

Duration :

A week long (Total : 15 Hours)

Fees :
