

Code of Ethics for Research

Research committee has developed some ethics for research publication. The committee expects to understand the ethics policy before submitting the research work to the journal. The research data has been check through free plagiarism software “Plagiarism Checker X (6.0.8). Ethical committee gives prime importance to scholar gesture about the content for publication as well as responsibility of author. It will also help to prevent malpractices and misconduct of research data.

Publication ethical guidelines

- Originality of research work/article should not be tampered. The submitted research data should have transparency and fully referenced.
- Quotes and review of literature should have their appropriate credentials
- Figure, diagrams, photos, tabulated data should be critically analyzed and with proper credit
- Author should abide with editor’s policy for source data, authorship proof and originality
- Avoid disparity for providing reasonable explanation to disclose the vital information.